Customs power of attorney for residents (including resident corporations) shall be without power of substitution except for the purpose of execeuting shipper's export declarations. However, a power of attorney executed in favor of a licensed customs borker to act through any of its licensed officers or any employee specifically authorized to act for such customs broker by power of attorney.

If you are the importer of record, payment to the broker will not relieve you of liability for Customs charges in the event the charges are not paid by the broker.

Therefore, if you pay by check, Customs charges may be paid with a separate check payable to the "U.S. Customs Service" which shall be delivered to Customs by the broker. Importers who wish to utilize this procedure must contact our office in advance. In addition, the check must be in the exact amount, arrive with the shipment, and cannot be drawn on a foreign bank.

To be completed by Non-Resident Corporation only

(To be made by an officer other than the one who executes the power of attorney)
